FORMERLY: Teresa Stockhof

EARLY YEARS: Spent in Mendota, Ill., and later St. Boniface in Chicago.

AT ST. FRANCIS: It was difficult for her to assume the superiorship after Mother Moes and underwent many trials.

AFTERWARD: Returned to St. Boniface

TALENTS: Needlework and stitching.

DIED: Feb. 21, 1908 of pneumonia. She was 76 and spent 54 years as a sister.

NOTEWORTHY: She was the last of the four sisters through whose efforts the community was called into existence.