TURN, TURN: The early 20th century ushered in many changes. The congregation received a Decree of Praise from Rome and suffered a separation from its St. Louis-based counterparts.

SPREAD THIN: With fewer Sisters, the congregation was forced to close St. Francis Academy.

COLLEGE TO-BE: With a new focus on educating the congregation and young women, the school which ultimately would become the accredited college was established.

KNOWN FOR: Exemplifying what it meant to be a spouse of Christ. She spent 66 years with the Congregation.
