FORMERLY: Sister Consuela

FIRST JOB: Teaching first graders.

NOTEWORTHY: Helped start the first reading center at St. Francis in 1956.

FOOTNOTE: For a registration fee of $25, grade school students who were having trouble reading could receive help from the sisters.

CREDITS: She later went to Chicago to work with children, upon her return to the college she was made the director of the St. Francis Reading Center.