ARRIVED AT ST. FRANCIS: 1951

IN THE FAMILY: Two older sisters attended St. Francis so it wasn’t a difficult decision to attend. Her younger sister later came to St. Francis and the four called themselves “The CSFies.”

GRABBING A BITE: She fondly recalls her numerous seat assignments in the St. Francis dining room. The dean of students at the time set up a system that rotated every student’s seat, allowing each to sit with every other student regardless of class year.

GRADUATED: 1955 and became a teacher.

JOINER: She taught for several years before returning to St. Francis to enter in the order.

CELEBRATION: She has spent over 40 years in the order.
