Mother M. Thomasine Frye
President, 1926-1938
NO. 1: First president of the College of St. Francis.

WAR EFFORT: Through the Great Depression and World War II, the Sisters did their part by being involved with Red Cross training, day care centers and Civil Defense Shelters.

A TRUE EDUCATOR: Supported traditional elementary and secondary schools, but also took on a school for students with special needs and another for girls referred by the courts.

A CELEBRATION: Oversaw the Congregation’s 75th Jubilee.

FINAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: In the last years of her life, she completed a fourth revision to the Manual of Prayers and a new Ceremonial.