ARRIVED: In the 1940s

FIRST GLIMPSE: She first visited St. Francis as a high school student to watch dress rehearsals of the student plays.

MISSIONS: She would go on a teaching mission every summer.

HELPING HAND: Returning from her mission for summer school, she recalls always helping the nuns clean the school in preparation of the upcoming year.

GOOD REP: Says teachers from St. Francis were known as good teachers with a solid background in English and math.

IMPRESSED: By St. Francis' tremendous growth during her tenure. She fondly reflects on the impressive and quick expansion of the campus.
