Mother M. Vincent Hunk
Mother Superior, 1911-1923
Superior General, 1923-1926
AT WAR: World War I brought grief to the Congregation as Sisters mourned the loss of brothers, uncles, cousins and friends. Also, for the first time, the Sisters' citizenship was questioned and naturalization papers were collected.

PROGRESS STILL: Despite financial constraints, she led the construction of the Motherhouse's Taylor Wing and the Infirmary. Also, pursued the construction of Tower Hall and the purchase of 115 acres for the Guardian Angel Home.

LAST WORDS: "Heaven is worth everything. We cannot suffer too much nor labor too hard for this beautiful home, where I hope to meet you all again."
