Sr. Jean Lenz
The Fighting Irish

saints • saints • saints • saints • saints
CUB REPORTER: She began her higher education in journalism school at Marquette University.

CHANGE OF HEART: Before finishing her journalism degree, she transferred to study theology at the University of Notre Dame, where she later worked for more than 30 years.

POST-COLLEGE: She joined the faculty at St. Francis, right as the school became coed.

FIRST ASSIGNMENT: To teach the Old Testament.

GREATEST CHALLENGE: To teach the Old Testament.

MINISTERING: Was asked to start the Campus Ministry and did so by creating a felt banner, hanging it up and diving right in. With some guidance, she created agendas and activities.

GOLDEN GIRL: She recently became a Golden Jubilarian, celebrating 50 years with the order.