Mother Lucy
Mother Superior,
1887-1893
saints • saints • saints • saint
KNOWN FOR: Working with orphans and her kindness, understanding and fun-loving nature.

NOTEWORTHY: Was only 34 when she assumed the superiorship. She’s the youngest sister ever to hold this office, though, she previously served as a council member for six years.

INTERNATIONAL STAGE: The sisters began preparing educational exhibits for the Chicago World Fair, The Columbian Exposition of 1892. She also oversaw the development of bilingual programs offered to Polish, Slovak, Czech and German immigrants.

CONTINUED GROWTH: She helped raise the necessary money to finish the top floor of the Motherhouse and add a chapel wing.