Sr. Joanne Marusa
The Ambassador
GOLDEN GIRL: Has been with the Joliet Franciscans for more than 50 years.

MAJOR: English, but took several art classes as a break from all the reading.

FAVORITE CLASS: Any in a classroom on the top floor for the beautiful views of the campus.

VARIOUS VOCATIONS: She worked at Guardian Angel home, then a migrant health office in Detroit for seven years. Later, she was a part of the Congregation Administration as the General Secretary.

MOST ENJOYABLE: Returning to St. Francis after all those years.

EASY DUTY: Representing St. Francis wherever she goes. She says it's very special to be recognized and affiliated with the university.
