HOOKED ON...: Renowned educator whose phonics charts and booklets were copyrighted and still used to this day.

MAKING A MARK: Established Guardian Angel Home, a home for orphans and neglected children, and instituted education records and classroom supervision.

NEVER IDLE: Successively held every office of the Convent, including Mother Superior for two successive terms.

DIED: March 8, 1923 of pneumonia in the 58th year of her religious career.