FORMERLY: Sr. Barbara Ann

BEST TIME: Taking classes during the summer because of all of the fond memories of having fun with her classmates.

GRADUATED: With a degree in biology and became a science teacher.

DO-OVER: She soon decided she did not want to teach biology for the rest of her life and went back to school to study theology and religious education.

DIVINE CALLING: She attended the Franciscan Institution where she received her masters in theology.